

Treasure Tour Sponsors: $40 small, $50 Large

Redbery Books - Cable

RedberyBooks.com
715-798-5016

Badger Valley Publishing

Your story. Your way. Your book. Today!
You choose the terms. 715-798-3163
BadgerValley.com

Brick House Café & Catering

TheBrickHouseCafe.net
715-798-5432 in Cable

“Lumberjack History” presentations

Slide show, book readings and signings.
Will adapt to fit your needs.
715-798-3163 in Cable

The Rivers Eatery

www.TheIdealMarket.com 715-798-3123
Voted Top-10 Adventure Bar in USA!

Free, self-guided

Treasure Tour

of Historic Lumberjack-era sites near Cable and Hayward.

Accompanies James A. Brakken’s
The Treasure of Namakagon

An 1883 lost treasure and lumberjack adventure. Fact-based. Set in Chicago, Cable, and Hayward, Wisconsin

Copyright 2012 James A. Brakken Badger Valley Publishing

Where to find The Treasure of Namakagon:

Print Version, Large Print, and Ebooks all available at

TheTreasureofNamakagon.com

Softcover edition available from:

- Redbery Books, downtown Cable
- Cable/Namakagon History Museum
- Loon Saloon Duluth Pack
- White Winter Winery
- Marketplace Foods

Where to find The Treasure of Namakagon:

- Northwind Book
- Sawmill Saloon in Seeley
- Douglas County Historical Society
- Ashland Historical Society
- SawyerCountyLakesForum.com
- Smashwords.com (all E-readers)
- More outlets coming soon!

“Weaves mystery into history. Vivifies 19th century life in the legendary north woods.” Michael Perry, bestselling Wisconsin author.

“A twisting, turning adventure for all ages ...and legendary lost treasure. History buffs will love this book!” Waldo Asp, AARP Chair and Sawyer Co Lakes Forum President.

More at TheTreasureofNamakagon.com